Joel Blumert

New Jersey born, Joel Blumert got hooked on music as a child. Lucky to have sat at the feet of Skip James, Bukka White, Son House, Sleepy John Estes, and others in the 60's, he has deep blues roots. Singer, songwriter, finger-style player, and voice/guitar teacher, he is a fixture on the CT blues/folk scene, though known mostly to other musicians for his original, driving, intricate guitar, and powerful, expressive vocals.

His music features clear powerful vocals and dazzling finger style six and twelve string guitar work. He offers his audiences originality and a very personal style, while always staying firmly rooted in folk and country blues traditions.

Come see why he was in all the papers!

Kick back and Relax.
